Re: Rlexport Cargo LLC.

Dear Mr. Sendon,

I am writing in response to your letter dated October 30, 2025, regarding our Local Business Tax Receipt (Business Tax Account #7353044) and our company's operations involving shipments to Cuba.

Although your correspondence is dated October 30, we received it today, November 5, 2025, and we are responding promptly upon receipt.

Rlexport Cargo LLC. provides gift parcel delivery services from individuals in the United States to their relatives and friends in Cuba. These shipments are personal gift packages containing food, clothing, medicine, and other personal goods, and are made strictly for noncommercial and humanitarian purposes.

Our activities are conducted in full compliance with federal law, specifically under the General License / License Exception GFT (Gift Parcels and Humanitarian Donations) contained in the Export Administration Regulations (Section 740.12 of the EAR), as well as the Cuban Assets Control Regulations (31 CFR Part 515). Nevertheless, Rlexport Cargo LLC also holds export licenses issued by the Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS). Although these licenses have not been required due to the nature of our shipments, they remain active and valid as an additional compliance safeguard.

Rexport Cargo LLC fully adheres to all applicable federal and local requirements, and we remain committed to lawful and transparent business operations in Miami-Dade County.

Please feel free to contact me if you require any additional information or documentation.

Sincerely,

Marcos Caballero
